Welcome

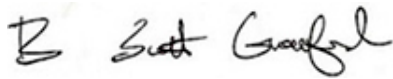

Welcome to the latest edition of Insight.

In this edition we share a recent Library Journal article about item movement from Noel Rutherford at Nashville Public Library \(TN\), reveal the Top Titles over the next 3 months as predicted by ESP, and much more.

Since our last issue, we have been celebrating 21 years of the EBSM methodology. Click here to read our new blog post about using a methodology.

Last month we attended the PLA 2016 Conference in Denver, CO. Watch recordings of presentations from our collectionHQ Forum and Evidence-based Selection Planning (ESP) sessions in Academy. You can also check out our events page for our upcoming Forums and to find out what we're doing at ALA Annual in Orlando.

Finally, don't forget to visit the collectionHQ Community in Academy for our Tip of the Month about Summer Reading!

Product News

We are currently working with a number of volunteer librarians to develop a new Dashboard functionality. Dashboards will help collectionHQ customers to monitor performance progress and results achieved by using the Evidence Based Stock Management \(EBSM\) methodology with collectionHQ.

Throughout 2016, we will also continue to introduce enhanced new features to our leading edge decision support tool for selectors, ESP.
